COMPREHENSION ECRITE

Part 1: Cowboys

Read the text about cowboys and answer the questions.

There is only one correct answer.

1 Cowboys have always had a romantic image. In Hollywood films, being a cowboy wasn't a job. It was a life of adventure, freedom, horses. It was a classic symbol of the U.S.A. In reality, the real American cowboys have lived and worked here in the west and south-west of the United States for over three centuries, long before Hollywood. The adventure and romance have disappeared now but the hard work and long hours are the same as they have always been.

2 No one knows how many cowboys are still working. Maybe between ten and fifty thousand. It's also difficult to define a twenty-first century cowboy. Now modern ranches use the latest technology and employ accountants. But some of the old traditional ranches make more money by offering holidays to tourists; people come and stay for a holiday and live the cowboy's life (or a Hollywood version of it).

3 But even with technology, real cowboys still do the same job they have done for years. The cows walk across huge plains and eat grass many miles from the ranch. And so cowboys ride on horses to bring them home. Cowboys work in the middle of nowhere, in a place where you can't make a phone call because mobile phones don't work. Like the cowboys of the past, twenty-first century cowboys still get up early on freezing cold mornings and make breakfast over an open fire. There is no Monday to Friday, weekends off or paid holidays.

4 Two brothers – Tyrel and Blaine Tucker – have lived on ranches and worked with cows since they were children. Their mother had a ranch in Wyoming. They wear traditional cowboy clothes with the famous hat and boots. You could do the same job in a baseball cap but Tyrel and Blaine prefer the traditional cowboy culture: 'It's a real life about you, your horse and the open country.'

Paragraph 1

1. Cowboys today have
 - a) a romantic job
 - b) a classical job
 - c) a hard job

2. In Hollywood films, you can see
 - a) adventurous cowboys
 - b) real American cowboys
 - c) always the same cowboys

Paragraph 2

3. What can tourists do when they visit a ranch?
 - a) make a lot of money
 - b) live like a cowboy
 - c) use the latest technology

Paragraph 3

4. Cows
 - a) eat grass only near the ranch
 - b) are often afraid of horses
 - c) can walk a long distance

Paragraph 4

5. The two brothers
 - a) sometimes work with their mother on her ranch
 - b) like traditional clothes better than modern clothes
 - c) would prefer to play basketball sometimes

Part 2: Summer Fun for young people

Read the text about three holiday clubs for young people.

For the sentences 1 to 7, write X under the correct club.

In each line, there is only one correct answer.

DOLPHIN CLUB

At Dolphin, young people will never be bored, as you never do the same thing twice in a week. This is a club for people who like to be moving around, so don't book a place if your hobbies are drawing or music. Most of the teenagers who go to the club are interested in the kayaking, windsurfing and wakeboarding that you can do at the lake, so bring your bathing suit and a towel. Remember to take your lunch and snacks with you, as there isn't any place to buy food.

TEEN PARADISE CLUB

Teen Paradise is different from most summer holiday clubs because sport is not the most important activity. Instead, you can try acting, making videos, painting and drawing. As the club is in a very old town, the instructors also take groups out to local museums and castles. There are buses, which stop near the club, and an area just outside where you can leave cars. The club will give you drinks and many snacks, but you should take your own lunch.

DREAM TEAM CLUB

Dream Team is great for teenagers who love being outside and doing sport. You can do football, tennis, volleyball, and cycling, or play in the woods and discover fascinating facts about plants and trees with our instructors. The club is quite a long way from town, but easy to get to by car or train. There is a great café, which sells drinks, sandwiches, and biscuits, so take some money with you. And remember, if your parents pay for your place a month before the club starts, the club will cost them ten percent less.

	DOLPHIN CLUB	TEEN PARADISE	GREEN DREAM CLUB
1 Here you can go swimming.
2 This is the best club if you are interested in nature.
3 Every day you can choose a different activity.
4 This is the best club if you like quiet pastimes.
5 This is the best club if you like team sports.
6 Here you can buy snacks every day.
7 Here your parents can park their cars.
